

16 June
13:30 – 18:00

EDQM Open Day

A day for all to enjoy!

European Directorate for the Quality of Medicines & Health Care (EDQM), Strasbourg

Join us for an afternoon packed with fun and educational activities to discover how the EDQM contributes to public health and what that contribution means for your health and wellbeing.

This is a rare opportunity to get a behind-the-scenes insight into how the EDQM has protected public health since 1964 and to meet the dedicated teams that make it happen.

Join us on a voyage of discovery with interactive videos, displays, quizzes and games for all ages.

Let's celebrate better health for all, together. Everyone is invited!

Activities
for all the family

Information
about medicines
and health products

Trace the history of the EDQM

Meet
the EDQM team

Your visit to the EDQM

Terrace and games for children

Today, Tomorrow, Together for public health

1 History

“60 years of excellence in public health protection” exhibition and video projection about the history of the EDQM

2 Today

Information stands on medicines, blood donation, tissue, cell and organ transplantation, cosmetics and other health products. Video projection on what the EDQM does for me and my health

3 Tomorrow

Video projection on the future of public health

4 Together

Video projection on the power of international collaboration for the protection of public health

Practical information

Your visit will take about one hour.

All bags and backpacks will be scanned by security at the entry to the building.

How to find us

EDQM
7 allée Kastner
Strasbourg

Where to park your car or bike

